A WORLD OF WINE

Taste 2024 – A World of Wine

It is with great pleasure that we launch our new Price List for 2024, which comes into effect from Monday 1st April.

We are confident that once again the market value, quality and price we offer across the board remains steadfastly competitive, something we know you have come to expect from Wine Importers.

After recent years of turmoil, I am pleased to say that this year's list reflects much greater pricing stability throughout the global wine market. Through careful management our pricing continues to track below general inflation levels. Indeed, a significant number of key lines (Over 60 wines) including Prosecco and Pinot Grigio are down in price which will help with your profitability. In other parts of the world we continue with the theme of more stable wine pricing.

A few exceptions should be mentioned and these include: Champagne which continues to suffer from rising production costs and Burgundy where the impact of successive poor harvests and high demand is still felt. Cava increases in price due to an exceptionally poor harvest whilst Antipodean wines may reflect a small increase due to higher logistical costs as shipping is re-routed to avoid the Red Sea crisis. Other increases on the list tend to be small and often below inflation.

We were pleased to see that in the recent budget the chancellor recognised the damaging impact of last year's high duty increase and this has resulted in duty now being frozen until February 2025.

For 2024 we continue to focus on sourcing characterful, quality wines with provenance for you and your customers to enjoy. We hope these wines will add value to your list and make your wine selection stand out from the crowd!

We have added 145 new wines to our list this year including:

France – Burgundy: Two new domaines of Ghislain Kohut in Côte de Nuits and Domaine Maldant Pauvelot in the Côte de Beaune. Both passionate family owned houses that show that value for money can still be achieved in the Côte d'Or. We have also added in a selection of older vintage, hard to get, mature Burgundys to our range.

Spain – Bodegas Langa: Superbly presented! This 5th generation producer is now using the most modern production systems to produce innovative wines with a fine fusion of colour, fruit and wood.

Hungary – Royal Tokaji: Unique wines of international acclaim which stand alongside the finest in the world.

New Zealand – Seven Degrees Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc: This well-priced great quality addition is a crowd pleasing beautifully balanced tropical fruit bomb.

Australia – Vasse Felix: From Margaret River, one of the great wine regions of the world. Established in 1967 by regional pioneer Tom Cullity, Vasse Felix is Margaret River's founding wine estate.

Familia Torres – Spain: We have refreshed our offering with a number of 'new wave' wines blending modernity and tradition, including the fabulous 'Clos Ancestral' which utilises Moneu, an ancestral grape variety native to Penedès that celebrates the unique terroir and legacy of Penedès.

Other unique additions include: Boulard Calvados Grand Solage, VSOP and XO. Venetian Vermouth featuring crisp Italian white wine blended with a distinctive Scottish new-make malt spirit. Amaro 'Ciao' from Tayport Distillery, paying homage to the rich Italian heritage of dry aperitifs and incorporating the unique flavours of the finest Scottish ingredients. Cockburns of Leith 'Founder's Reserve' Blended Scotch Whisky produced at Annandale Distillery – 88% malt, 46% ABV, non-chill filtered and a finalist in the 2023 Scottish Whisky awards!

Sales: we take great pride in the highly personalised service we offer and our knowledgeable and experienced sales managers look forward to working closely with you throughout the year, to promote and add value to your wine sales.

Finally, may I wish you a warm thank you from all our team for your greatly valued business and support.

Wishing you a successful year of trading.

Kind regards,

Neil Renton
Managing Director
